ANECDOTE OF GENERAL WASHINGTON.

Washington had accepted an invitation from Arnold to breakfast with him at West Point on the very day the plot was discovered, but was prevented from keeping his engagement by what men call chance—by the earnest request namely, of an old officer, near whose station they passed, to stop and the night there and inspect some works in the neighborhood. Next day, while Washington, with his staff, including La Fayette, were seated at table at this officer's quarters, a despatch was brought to the American General, which he immediately opened and read, then laid it down without comment. No alteration was visible in his countenance, but he remained perfectly silent. Conversation dropped among his suite; and, after some minutes, the General beckoning La Fayette to follow him, passed to an inner apartment, turned to his young friend without uttering a syllable, placed the fatal dispatch in his hands, and then giving way to an ungovernable burst of feeling, fell on his neck and sobbed aloud. The effect produced on the young French marquis, accustomed to regard his General (bold and dignified in his usual manner) as devoid of the usual weakness of humanity, may be imagined. "I believe," said La Fayette, in relating this anecdote, "that this was the only occasion, throughout that long and sometimes hopeless struggle, that Washington ever gave way, even for a moment under a reverse of fortune; and perhaps I was the only human being who ever witnessed in him an exhibition of feelings so foreign to his temperament. As it was, he recovered before I had; erased the communication that had given rise to his emotions; and when we returned to his staff no trace remained on his countenance, either of grief or despondency.

POSITION IN SLEEP.

Hall's Journal of Health says: "It is better to go to sleep on the right side, for then the stomach is very much in the position of a bottle turned upside down, and the contents of it are aided in passing out by gravitation. If one goes to sleep on the left side, the operation of emptying the stomach of its contents, is more like drawing water from a well. After going to sleep let the body take its own position. If you sleep on your back, especially soon after a hearty meal; the weight of the digestive organs and that of the food, resting on the great vein of the body, near its backbone, compresses it, and arrests the flow of blood more or less. If the arrest is partial the sleep is disturbed, and there are unpleasant dreams. If the meal has been recent and heavy, the arrest is more decided; and the various sensations, such as falling over a precipice, or the pursuit of a wild beast, or impending dangers, and the desperate effort to get rid of it, arouse us, and sends on the stagnating blood; and we wake in a fright, or trembling, or in a perspiration or being exhausted, according to the degree of stagnation, and the length and strength of efforts made to escape the danger. But when we are unable to escape the danger—when we do fall over the precipice, when the trembling building crushing us—what then? That is death! That is the death of those whom it is said, when found lifeless in the morning, 'That they were as well as ever the day before;' and often it is added, "and eat heartier than common!" This last, as a frequent cause of death to those who have gone to bed to wake no more, we give merely as a private opinion. The possibility of its truth is enough to deter any rational man from a hearty meal. This we do not know with certainty, that waking up in the night with painful diarrhœa, or bilious colic, ending in death in a very short time, is probably traceable to a large meal. The truly wise will take the safe side. For persons who eat three times a day, it is amply sufficient to make the last meal of cold bread and butter, and a cup of some warm drink. No one can starve on it; while a perseverance soon begets a vigorous appetite for breakfast, so promising of a day of comfort."

THE TRANSPLANTED FLOWER.

One pleasant morning in the Spring-time, when the birds were singing a welcome to the flowers that first unfolded their delicate petals, a gardener gave me a little plant. He told me to place it in my nursery and take care of it for him. And then he said that after a while he would come to take it again, plant it in his own ground, and take charge of it himself. I received the gift with thankful heart, and planted it in my nursery. There it was my constant care. When night approached, fearing that the frost might touch the little thing, I placed my own garment over it.

Thus my little plant grew day by day. By and by it began to bloom, and I thought I had never seen such beauty. The flower seemed like a part of myself, I loved it so. I could sit and watch it playing with the breeze and never grow weary.

But the gardener came. I knew his object when I saw him coming, and I could not greet him as before. He came to take my flower, my precious, lovely flower. I knew it was his, and that I had no right to refuse when he asked me for his own; but oh! my affections had twined very strongly around the little flower, and it seemed hard to cut them loose.

I gave him what he asked for. It cost me a struggle; but it is over now and I rejoice. For in the garden above, where my flower is planted, there are no rude winds and nipping frosts. And the gardener told me that some day soon, I should be admitted where my little plant is to bloom forever.

Friends long separated here, may be reunited in the better world, where there are no tearful partings. Our loved departed are not lost, only gone before. At the shining gates they stand to welcome us home.—Presbyterian Banner.

STRONG CHARACTER.

Strength of character consists of two things—power of will and power of self-restraint. It requires two things, therefore, for its existence—strong feelings and strong command over them. Now it is here we make a great mistake; we mistake a strong character. A man who bears all before him, before whose frown domestics tremble and whom bursts of fury make the children of the household quake—because he has his will obeyed, and his own way in all things, we call him a strong man. The truth is, that is the weak man; it is his passions that are strong; he that is mastered by them is weak. You must measure the strength of a man by the power of the feelings he subdues not by the power of those which subdue him. And hence composure is very often the highest result of strength. Did we never see a man receive a flagrant insult, and only grow a little pale, and then reply quietly? That is a man spiritually strong. Or did we never see a man in anguish, stand as if carved out of a solid rock, mastering himself? Or, one bearing a helpless daily trial, remain silent, and never tell the world what kankered his home peace? This is strength. He who, with strong passions, remains chaste; he who, keenly sensitive, with many powers of indignation in him, can be provoked, and yet restrain himself and forgive—these are the strong men, the spiritual heroes.

LIFE INSURANCE.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.,

A. WILBUN, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

ASSETS NEARLY

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIABLE Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031, and dividend on the life of my late husband. ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(Signed) ——, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend of $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this twenty-fifth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest, which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table, with immediate annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLION DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 a-piece, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities.—Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

H. W. StJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M D. LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS OF TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with [illegible].

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company, and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

GALA DAY AMONG THE HANDS.

"Alas! for the rarity
Of Christian charity,
How feelings have changed;
Even God's providence
Seems now estranged."

Senator Rich died on Monday. On Tuesday, Judge Osborne, Senator's Graham, Robbins, Lassiter, Hayes, Sweet and Jones, paid tribute to his memory in well timed and appropriate remarks, upon his character and virtues.

In the House, the death of Senator Rich was announced by a message from the Senate. Instead of paying, as the Senate did, tributes to his memory, and then adjourn, the House adjourned, and, by Resolution offered by Mr. Estes, agreed that, "after 11 o'clock to-morrow, the morning session should be set aside to pay tributes to the memory of Senator Rich."

No deliberative body ever did that before. Propriety, good taste, and all precedent, would suggest that tributes should have been paid on Tuesday as the Senate did.

Wednesday, after the Committee had started on the train with the body of the deceased Senator, the House is engaged in pronouncing eulogies upon the deceased, and then they adjourn—the business members to Committee rooms and duty, but many of the hands to the grog shops. Adjourning a second day out of respect for the dead, they make a gala day of it. Hands drunk, and hands sober, were to be seen that day.

Nothing but the tame and broken spirit of the people, keeps them from rising up and driving the "hands" out of the Capitol.

If the people of the State will speak out, as did the people of Chatham, notwithstanding the condemnation of Mr. John Manning, the hands may halt in their wild, corrupt course.

The remains of Senator Rich were taken, not to his home and constituents, but to the State of Vermont, accompanied by four members of the Legislature. We have heard members of the House and Senate say, when they voted for the resolutions, they supposed his remains would be taken to his home and his constituents. The public will better understand the charactery of their public servants, by what they say and do, than by what we say of them.

The Auditor's papers, for six days, looking like an Edgecombe compost heap, still lie in confused heaps in the rotunda of the Capitol, while the Governor visits the grog shops, and the Speaker of the House and the Attorney General fight it out in bar rooms.

This is out door performance. In the Capitol, the Doorkeeper and the Engrossing Clerk fight. In the Senate, Mr. Wynne introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of State, (carpet-bag Messenger,) to inform the Senate what number of Register's books he had ordered, how many he disposed of, and to whom, and the amount of money he drew, to meet the expense of distributing them, and by what authority he did it.

Mr. Wynne, Republican, said: "Questions of veracity, and difference of opinion, had arisen between the Secretary of State, and one of his clerks. We have, Senators, been abused long enough, and will continue to be, if these things are not thoroughly investigated. We are called a buzzard's nest. The whole world is talking about us. We are called negro loving devils, without sense enough to put on our hats. We must vindicate our integrity or go down. In Heavens' name let us redeem our honor. If the Secretary of State is guilty, let him be punished; if innocent, let him show it. I make no charges, but his clerk does, and he says he can substantiate them. It is said that the Secretary of State is a bankrupt. It is also said he has purchased a piano for his wife to play Yankee Doodle upon, at a cost of $1,500. I do not understand these things. I don't understand how a bankrupt, recently discharged, can purchase a piano at 1,500 dollars. Let us have the Secretary of State at the bar of the Senate, and dispose of this matter at once. If this resolution fail to pass, I have another which will reach the case; but I trust the Senate will not hesitate for a moment."

The Standard says, "Gen. Grant's late speech is short, sharp and decisive." It is neither as sharp, as short, nor as pointed as Senator Wynne's, and the people of North Carolina will read Senator Wynne's with much more interest than they will General Grant's.

Mr. Welker, Senator from Guilford, said, in reply to Mr. Wynne: "It seems we have arrived at a period in our history when we have nothing to do but to investigate the charges of our public officers. He was opposed to going into any investigation, unless charges were preferred in a proper form, from some responsible person. He thought any other policy would simply expose the Senate to ridicule and contempt."

Mr. Wynne withdrew his resolution to take such action, that Senators might not object to. His effort was all in vain; the Senate refused to investigate charges made by the Secretary's own Clerk.

How long will drunken carpet-baggers, ignorant negroes, and worthless natives, continue to abuse the patience of the people? We answer, just so long as the people tamely submit, without murmur or complaint.

A WORD FOR PRAYER.

If the Right Rev. Welker, the Right Rev. Smith, and the Right Rev. Blythe, will promise not to be angered, and not abuse us on the floor of the Senate, and call our paper a "scurrilous sheet"—we should like to say a serious, solemn word for prayer in the Senate.

Our Reporter informs us, that at one period of the session you opened the Senate with prayer, which was acceptable to that body, and we trust acceptable to the great good Giver of all, to whom your prayers were addressed; but you were all three displeased with the action and words of the Senate in regard to employing a Chaplain, and so much displeased that you all refused longer to pray at all for the Senate. If we were an infidel and unbeliever, we could approve of your conduct, but as a Christian man—we cannot. Without, intending to rebuke the pious conduct of Senatorial divines, we beg to print and put before their eyes, the words of Dr. Franklin, in Convention, in 1789.

GOD GOVERNS.

"In this situation of this Assembly,—groping, as it were, in the dark, to find political truth, and scarce able to distinguish it when presented to us,—how has it happened, Sir, that we have not hitherto once thought of humbly applying to the Father of Light to illuminate our understanding? In the beginning of the contest with Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for the divine protection. Our prayers, Sir, were heard,—and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favor.—To that kind Providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity. And have we now forgotten that powerful Friend? or do we imagine we no longer need His assistance? I have lived, Sir, a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth,—that God governs in the affairs of men. And, if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the Sacred Writings, that "except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." I firmly believe this; and I also believe that, without His concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel."

Remember, men of God, without your prayers, what has become of the Penitentiary building. Remember, too, that yours is the only Legislative body in the United States, or in the world, that begins its morning's work without thanks to God, and an acknowledgment that he does, and should, govern in the affairs of men.

TEST OATHS.

Congress, in persisting in the system of test oaths, is doing, if possible, more injustice to its good sense than to any other principle of action. Even the majority must agree that "it is a great honor to the Southern people than any achieved on battlefields that, though impoverished by war, and, in many cases, in absolute need of the necessaries of life—though the masses of the people were involved in war without the exercise of their own volition, they refuse, with few exceptions, to swear that they never yielded voluntary support to the Confederacy. They are willing enough to take the test oath to support the Constitution and the Union."

Their adherance to truth and conscience, says the New York Express, renders them most trustworthy official agents, and yet these good qualities are made the cause of their punishment. Reasoning on the involuntary support given to the South, the late Attorney General Stanbery argued forcibly and truly, that, when insurrection takes the form of a de facto government and enforces laws over the people within its territory, individual rights and obligations undergo modification, and the rightful and displaced authority, when it again comes into place, must consider things as rightfully done, which, in mere insurrection, would have no color of legality. This principle was enforced in England by statute and by decisions of courts as early as Henry the Second. The established law is that obedience to the de facto government, established under a usurping monach, does not involve a subject in the guilt of treason to the lawful king. Cannot a Republic afford to be as merciful as a Monarchy? Ought not some respect to be paid to the virtues of a people who esteem personal honor above public office? Must this thing of test oaths endure until consciences become scared, or oppression makes them mad?

GEN. GRANT TO BE A NO PARTY PRESIDENT.

Referring to Gen. Grant's remarks when officially notified, last Saturday, of his election to the Presidency, the New York Times says it is not surprised to learn from Washington that what the General said "has created a feeling akin to consternation among certain classes of Washington politicians. It is well calculated to do so. It is clearly the speech of a man who does not intend to be governed in his administration by the interest of political parties, or the wishes of party leaders—but by his own ideas of what the public welfare requires.

* * * * *

It is very clear that he feels and appreciates thoroughly the independence and responsibility of his position, and that he intends to wield the great power placed in his hands, not under the dictation of any party or any man, but according to his own ideas of duty and the public good. He will select his own advisers, appoint his own office holders, remove and change them at his own will, and to suit his own ideas of what the public good requires.

* * * * *

There are plenty of men who say that General Grant must fall if he attempts to conduct his administration on such a basis, and especially if he attempts to select his Cabinet and appoint his subordinate officers of his own motion, and not under the advice and in subservience to the interests of the party that placed him in power.

* * * * *

It is a mistake to suppose that General Grant must rely on the organized Republican party for support. He has the whole country for his constituency, and the great mass of the people, without distinction of party, for his friends and supporters."

To all of which we say Amen and Amen!

Legislature of North Carolina.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. Welker until Monday next and to Mr. Davis, from and after to-day, indefinitely.

On motion of Mr. Long, the rules were suspended and a message was read from the House transmitting the following bills, viz:

Bill to repeal section second of an act to change the time for holding the Courts in in the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, Judicial Districts. Passed its several readings.

Bill authorizing the Governor to assign rooms to the Supreme Court and Executive officers of the State, with an amendment to strike out "Supreme Court and," which was concurred in.

Mr. Hodnett presented a petition from the citizens of Caswell Co., in reference to Guardians and Administrators. Referred.

Leave of absence were granted Messrs Beddie, Smith, of Wayne, and Price, colored.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the House resolution providing a room for the Superintendent of Public Works.

Several other messages were received from that body, transmitting various bills, asking the concurrence of the House.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Gunter introduced the following resolution, which lies over:

WHEREAS, Edgar Miller, colored, Doorkeeper of the House, attempted to arrest a member of this body while speaking, in his place, on the floor of this House, without authority from the presiding officer, and

Whereas, On the same day, Monday the 15th instant, the said Doorkeeper, did assault, with violence, an officer of this House, taking possession of a room in this building appointed to said officer, in discharge of his duty; and whereas, the conduct and bearing of the aforesaid Edgar Miller, on the occasion alluded to, has been disorderly and subversive of the rights and privileges of the officers and members of this House, and calculated to bring the dignity and authority of the same into contempt:

Therefore be it resolved, That, in vindication of its dignity and honor, this House hereby relieves the said Edgar Miller from further attendance in the same as Doorkeeper.

By Mr. French: A bill concerning Townships; also to incorporate the Wilmington Water Works Co. Both bills were appropriately referred.

By Mr. Durham: A bill authorizing a public road in Cleaveland. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate, concurring in the House amendment to the bill empowering the Governor to assign rooms in the Capitol to the various officers.

On motion of Mr. Barnett, the rules were suspended and the bills extending the limits of the towns of Tarboro and Goldsboro' were taken up and recommitted to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Barnett then introduced a bill to submit to a vote of the people certain Railroad appropriations. Referred.

Mr. Sinclair arose to a question of privilege. He said that it was stated in the Sentinel that the Doorkeeper had collared him and forced him into his seat. Now the Doorkeeper had certainly attempted to collar him, and he (Mr. Sinclair) had then informed him (the Doorkeeper) that he would give him a horizontal position upon the floor, &c. As to being made to take his seat, that was not so.

Mr. Gatling gave notice that he would soon introduce a bill to incorporate the Gates County Agricultural Society.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The various bills submitted by the Code Commissioners.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the bill in relation to Landlords and Tenants was taken up and passed its second reading.

Mr. Malone moved to suspend the rules, in order to put the bill on its final passage. Carried.

Mr. Hodnett moved that the bill be read section by section. Carried.

G. W. Price, colored, moved to postpone until Wednesday next at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Stevens moved that the bill be printed.

After a long debate the yeas and nays were called, when the motion to print and resulted a vote of yeas 4, nays 86.

Mr. Stevens in casting his vote in the negative said he merely made the motion at the suggestion of another gentleman.

Cuffee Mayo, colored, said as he was unprepared to run the State to a needless expense he would vote no.

The motion to postpone was put to a vote and lost.

The bill under consideration was then discussed by sections.

Pending the debate upon the 23d section Mr. Stilley moved that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole. Carried.

Mr. Estes took the Chair.

Mr. Victor Barringer, of the Code Commission, in accordance with a resolution recently passed so amending the rules, as to make such a proceeding admissable, took the floor and explained the section.

Mr. French moved that the Committee of the Whole, recommend to the House, the adoption of the section as it reads in the bill. Carried.

After the adoption of the 23d section the further reading of the bill was dispensed with on motion of Mr. Seymour.

On motion of Mr. Seymour, the Committee of the Whole arose, and its Chairman, Mr. Estes, reported progress.

On motion of Mr. Malone, the report of the Committee of the Whole was concurred in.

After some further amendment and debate, the bill passed its third and final reading.

On motion of Mr. Poe, the rules were suspended and the Senate resolution proposing to raise a Joint Committee of six, three on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, to consider the erection of a State prison, was taken from the calendar and passed its second reading.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, moved to amend by making the Committee seven, four on the part of the House and three on the part of the Senate. Carried.

The resolution, as amended, passed its third reading.

By consent, Mr. Graham introduced a bill to enable the Chatham Railroad Company to complete its Road. Referred.

On motion, the House adjourned until 7½ o'clock, this evening.

THE LINCOLN ASSASSINATION.

Attempt to Implicate Mr. Corcoran and Senator Bayard.

[Dispatch to the Commercial Advertiser.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Congressional Committee has obtained some important evidence in relation to the assassination of President Lincoln

A servant of the Russian Minister, in July, 1862, has testified during the examination of W. W. Corcoran's claim by the Senate Committee, that at a dinner party, given at the Russian Legation, Senator Bayard said he would give $10,000 to any one who would assassinate Mr. Lincoln, and Mr. Corcoran added that he would give ten times that sum.

The Committee summoned old man Dohner, who was then butler to the Russian Minister, to corroborate the testimony of the witness. But Dohner has thus far refused to testify, claiming diplomatic privileges on the ground that he was then employed at the Foreign Legation. He has been excused until Wednesday next, when he will have to testify or be brought before the Senate for contempt.

In view of Gen. Grant's refusal to come in contact with President Johnson, the committee may not communicate with the latter relative to the ceremonies; but, however this may be, President Johnson will probably relieve all parties of embarrassment in the case by quietly repairing at 10 o'clock (March 4th) to the President's room adjoining the Senate and, according to custom on the last day of the session, there remain with his Cabinet until noon (the hour when his official term expires) to consider bills that may be presented for his signature.—If this usual course be pursued, he will not, therefore, be a party to the procession and other ceremonies which will be in progress at the same time in the streets of the city, and the committee and all other parties will then be relieved of the dreaded embarrassment.

It is understood that the members of President Johnson's Cabinet, except, probably, General Schofield and Mr. Evarts, will tender their resignations on or before the 4th of March, to take effect on that day. Special to Rich. Dispatch.

THE PENITENTIARY.—Perhaps no part of the new Constitution met with such general favor as the section providing for the erection of a Penitentiary or State Prison. —Standard.

How can you say that when it is well known that the people of this State, by a large majority, on two occasions, voted against erecting a Penitentiary? When the voice of the citizens of the State was respected, in former times, we opposed the Penitentiary scheme on the ground that it would be a source of corruption, and afford opportunity to speculators and office seekers to make money.

The recent developements in regard to the purchase of a site for the Penitentiary ought to satisfy all that it is nothing but a plundering scheme. The indignation of the people has been so great that even the House of Representatives, the other day, voted to repeal the Act establishing a Penitentiary.—Winston Sentinel.

ELEGANT PARLIAMENTARY LANGUAGE.—"I never have believed, and I do not believe, that Ben Wade ever meant to do, or ever had done, and intentional wrong." This was in the House of Representatives on Friday—the speaker the leader of the House, Gen. Butler.

A little thing like this shows how deep has been the fall of the national Congress from the refined and hypercultivated region of Massachusetts—living very near Boston itself—the foremost man in the lower House of Congress—referring to the President of the Senate as one thief refers to another—"Ben Wade!" It is done in the coolest manner, and excites no remarks.—Imagine Mr. Jefferson in the Continental Congress refering to Jack Adams, or Silas Wright refering to the United States Senate to Jack Calhoun!

ARREST OF ALLEGED MAIL ROBBERS.—St. Louis, February 14.—Mail bags have been missed between here and Cairo for more than a year past, and detectives have been working up the case for some time.—It was finally ascertained that the robberies were committed at Odin, Illinois, the connecting point between the Ohio and Mississippi and Illinois Central Railroads. On Friday night the officers were there, and while the the mail was being transferred from one train to the other, three men appeared and undertook to carry off some boxes. The officers sprang on them, but two made their escape, and the other was shot twice before he could be secured. The men who escaped were subsequently arrested, and proved to be brothers, named Allsop, 23 and 25 years old. They are now in jail at Odin. The wounded man's name is Howell.

THE PETERSBURG ROAD.—We learn with pleasure that President Collier, of this road, has recently effected a money loan in New York, which will place the Company in an easy condition and enable repairs to be made which which will add much to the road. It is the intention, we understand, to place new rails, at an early day, on this end of the line, from Garysburg to Belfield. Under good management this road is rapidly finding its way to prosperity again, and, as one of the links on the great line of Railway which connect the North with the South, is destined to become a prosperous institution.—Roanoke News.

SEIZURES OF TOBACCO.—Acting under orders from Washington, and having been deputized by Wm. Selden, Esq., Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, Constables Steele and McCann has, within the past two days, seized about one hundred boxes of tobacco, stamped by certain Inspectors in North Carolina. Upon what grounds these seizures have been made we are not informed, but suppose it will be made public in a few days.—Norfolk Virginian.

The death of the Baptist Missionary, Mrs. Deborah B. D. Wade, wife of Rev. Jonathan Wade, D. D., of Burmah, is announced at the age of 68, and after a missionary life of 45 years.

MARRIED:

In Rolesville, Wake Co., on the 17th inst., by the Rev. Mr Bobbitt, D. McN. McKay, Esq., of Harnett, to Miss Leonora Flemming.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cases are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

Their operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by carrying, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it promotes the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnappe, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnappe, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnappe, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnappe prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnappe, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have prevended the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been crammed by inordacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

To the public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity, and the calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnappe as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnappe, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnappe as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnappe," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification: that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1869.

ANOTHER RAILROAD CHANGE.—On and after Sunday, 21st, inst., the schedule on the North Carolina Railroad changes—arriving from the east at 6 o'clock, and leaving 20 minutes thereafter, in the afternoon; from the west, reach Raleigh at 7 o'clock in the morning.

TO ANY MAN, with a knowledge of the drug business, an opportunity is offered, through our advertising columns, for a profitable investment. The store is located in one of our most prosperous and thriving western villages. For further information, apply at this Office.

N. C. MUTUAL HOME INSURANCE CO.—We are gratified to learn that this Company has commenced its operations under very flattering auspices. A number of policies have already been issued, and Local Agents are being appointed in every part of the State. We feel every assurance that the affairs of this great Home Institution will be efficiently managed, and that prudence in taking risks, and energy in presenting its advantages, will be practised. So conducted, its success is certain, and the benefits which it will confer upon the people will be incalculable. We commend this Company to the confidence and patronage of our people. See advertisement regularly appearing in this paper and nearly all the papers of the State.

We have a miniature city. We have representatives from all nations—all the tongues known to civilization, are within our corporate limits. Every day brings something new, notwithstanding. It has been said, "there is nothing new, under the sun."—Every hour, something of an exciting nature "turns up"—a few days ago, Auditor Adams had all his official papers thrown from a room to which he was assigned by the Legislature—later, a wool pulling took place in the Hall of the House of Representatives, and the doorkeeper got his head "bunged up"—and then we hear, that it is seriously contemplated by the Legislature, to invest women with the right of suffrage—that is a new idea, and does not take well with the fair creatures; their modesty, and delicate natures, shrink from the thought.—And we would advise the gallant member, that he has made himself odious. And again, we learn, that Miller, the sable door keeper, who has a "bunged eye," placed his hand on the shoulder of a distinguished member of the Legislature, while in debate, and told him to take his seat. Member, in an under tone, with a look that indicated blood, said, "don't you do that again!"

Marriages, too, are becoming fashionable, whether all parties are willing or not—and our best men, having fulfilled their missions, are passing into the spirit world. All these things are of daily occurrence, and the world "wags on," as if nothing had happened.

Now, we speak nothing of the morals of our community—they are good, so far as our observation extends—not perfect, however, as "there are none good, no not one," for the good book hath so said. But, compared with New York, we are surely an upright, religious community, although the Senate seldom opens its proceedings with prayer.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH.—Why is it, asks a contemporary, that the marriage announcements are immediately followed by obituary notices in our papers? Does death follow so close on the footsteps of marriage? Is grief the page that carries the train happiness? Does the tomb open wide its dark and ponderous jaws besides the nuptial couch? 'Tis the plan of life. The gleeful songs of light and merry hearts to-day, to morrow will turn to funeral chants, and, sobbing and lamenting be heard instead of glad, pealing laughter! We read, to day, of our friends' marriage, and wish them joy; to-morrow we see their deaths recorded, and say "Peace to the ashes." Our merriest songs are timed to the footfalls of death, and the "silver chord" is as fragile as a spider's thread; and the "golden bowl" is more brittle than glass.

THE velocipede mania is branching out in to all sorts of extravagances. One man (a mountebank by profession) declares he will ride a velocipede 3,000 miles in 30 days; going 100 miles a day. If he succeeds, he is to have $5,000. The idea here suggests itself, that as the hands are being severely worked, it would be an act of humanity to provide each with a velocipede. It would be a novel sight to witness one hundred and seventy loyal men, all astride an iron horse, en route for the Capital. The one hundred thousand dollars, saved from the purchase of the 8,000 acres of land in Chatham, can now be converted into velocipedes.

SOMETHING FOR OUR COUNTRY FRIENDS.—The seed of the common sunflower is greedily eaten by poultry, and serves to fatten them more rapidly than any other grain. The plant is as easily grown as Indian corn, equally prolific in yielding quart for quart, and more or less of it should be grown by every one who rears fowls. It may be planted on poor, wornout soil, and out of the way places, fence dornark, and yet produce it abundantly.

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

We are requested, by Senator Robbins, to give notice to the people of the 8th Judicial District that the recent act, changing the time of holding the Courts, has been repealed, and the Courts of that District will be held at the time fixed by the act of the last session of this General Assembly.

To the Hon. Mr. Vest,
House of Representatives:

You are one of the "beloved," and a friend of every liberal measure, if we understand your position. From the report of the House proceedings, it is understood that you favor female suffrage. Are you in dead earnest, or are you playing off, in your house, against the leader of the hands in the Senate, A. H. Galloway, colored? Now, there is some good sense in the move of Galloway, because he knows the colored females will all vote, while our ladies will not lower their dignity, and stem the vulgar current of the excited tri colored rabble that gather around the ballot-box on the day of election.

If you are only jesting, and mean to ridicule the idea of female suffrage, with you, we join in the play. But, we can't believe that you are joking, and so, we must treat the proposition with some consideration, and give you such aid, as you doubtless will need, to engineer so important a measure through the Legislature. As you will need all the argument you can get, in setting forth the claims of your bill, we give below, from a friend to female suffrage the following plausible, and we may say, unanswerable defense of the right to our female population, to vote, as well as to nurse, and do household work:

Only poets and old fogies object, we suppose, to the great advance. Old fogies are of no sort of account in this dashing age, except as fossil remains to aid some future geologist to determine the present period; but poets are to be respected, for poets are oracles, and, in some sort, prophets too.

The poetical objection to female suffrage looks ahead and beholds the sisterhood in pants, coats, and boots. This the poetic vision cannot shut out, and this it dislikes. The poetic ear lists and hears harsh notes and vehement and angry tones from woman's rosy mouth, and this he would idealize, woman hates. The poetic eye sees woman up to her ears in the muddy pool of politics, and regards her then as manish—and forthwith rises to the imagination the bearded sisters "around and about" the cauldron in "Macbeth." Neglected domestic duties, housnoild confusion, female insubordination to the master of the house hold, women-clubs, cliques, and even caucuses, street processions wherein dresses trail in dirt, boots get soiled, and faces become "lobster read," crowd and surcharge the poetic figure of female suffrage. That the dears will have regular battles is not even to be imagined, but that some of them, heated with party rage, will feel pugilistic once in awhile is among the imaginative vagaries that more than tinge the prospect. And female correspondence—now so winning and domestic—their sweet enchanting home letters, may be rudely changed into political missives, organizing leagues and conventions, and appointing delegates, while the state of the baby's health may remain unexplained by the mother, and uncared for by the distant aunt or grandmother.

Politics, likewise, makes free talkers and mixers, especially during the active campaign. The woman who votes must also electioneer, and shall she be deprived of the right to electioneer with the male sex? Not with her husband, for he is either despised by her politically—if she differ from him—or he is already curbed and in leading strings in her train. So to do good for the cause she must engineer among outsiders, to the great delight of her better half. And may she not also bet on elections, and see the "entire elephant" of a canvass? Once started, we should like to find the human power that can stop her!

The poetic eye sees rare things ahead in stump oratory and journalism. "My dear ladies," will say the stumper. "Our female voters," will write the party journalist.—And added multitudes of female spouters seem inevitable. 'Twill be a great thing for red Democracy to mix up the pursuits of the sexes in this way!

The poet can see more influence and power in the quiet refinement of one woman of purity, modesty and talent, exerted in her home and present sphere, than in a thousand men. And the publicist forever discovers, besides, that woman's politics gravitate towards aristocracy, and all the forms of monarchy, that of the Empire being the more dazzling. Their natures delight in the odor of power, and in its glittering trappings. Their souls abhor the mob, and detest "vulgar creatures." So think the publicists.

But surely there are exceptions to the above. The present race of Boomers are red hot, furious, levelling Democrats, for pitching over everything like restraint, and in favor of kicking clear out of the matrimonial harness when it chafes, and for running entirely away when it galls. This class will naturally separate from the monarchists in the event of female suffrage—and we will so have a female fight on the old issues of the Federalists and the Democrats. All the ladies who set up an establishment must naturally be with the former, and all whose aspirations are "genteel" will flutter in that vicinity. This state of matters will be exciting to all that sex—unless it be to her whose common sense rises above it, and regards it as a fancy of the age.—This sensation will resolve itself perhaps into a matter of fashion.

In this way female boarding schools will become interesting political nurseries. But, to deal fairly in this regard, all parties must be represented to the adolescent.—We must have exponents on every variety of debatable constitutional construction, expressly adapted to young misses. Shall these be men or women—and then shall they be old or young men or women? How can such teachers be dispensed with, if one is to fit the child to determine between parents divided in political sentiment?—And then who shall keep the peace between these discordant preceptors when they meet in the school or college parlor?

And then how is this matter to affect courtship? Will she or will he carry the point? Will love prevail over party, or party over love? When political ladies parade, are Venus and Cupid or Mars and Bellonna, or both, to figure in banners and transparencies?

And then if woman shall vote, shall she not hold office? Will she rule better than she confessedly she rules now? Let the lover, and not the statesman, solve this question—unless, indeed, the lobby of female grace and beauty are referred to as authority pending the passage of some private bill in which that lobby takes an "interest."

When once female suffrage comes, will ultra Radicalism pause, or shall we consider the rights of minors, and so on; shall we legislate for female employment, "extend their sphere" to the bar and the bench, and so on, and on, and on?

A young carpet-bagger who went South from the State of Iowa recently wrote home to his father as follows:

"Come down here, in her, mighty mean men get office here, now. You could be elected U. S. Senator without any trouble."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MORGANTON, Feb. 12, 1869.

Mr. Editor:—We have often heard old misanthropic politicians say, that the world was for sale, but we always thought they were embittered by disappointment and refused to adopt their belief; now however, were we to base our opinions upon what we see daily going on around us we would incline to agree with them. In fact so suspicious have we grown of late, that we have some misgivings when we see a friend get a ticket for the State Capitol, as it is said to be the renegade market place, and we fear he may return with another political coat on. It is passing strange to us plain, unsophisticated country people that, while all the necessaries of life are so enormously high, men alone sell cheap. We think some men must have moulded from disease and sold out as damaged goods; why we hear that it is no longer necessary for the Radicals, to take a man up into a high mountain, to show a new world, or even to a hill top to view a penitentiary site, or build him a private Railroad, or give him a big price for a kildee farm or a squirrel park, but we hear the Rads are actually enlisting from a dead level, offering no bounty, but being about to close doors, even require an admittance fee; however, they still come.

It does seem to us, if we had determined to sell out we would go to a new country, and show more respect for our ancestors than to sell out over their graves.

We believe in drawing distinctions in summing up our opinion of the men who constitute the Radical party. We could look with some degree of allowance on the ignorant; we might cherish only a mild contempt for the scary, and we could exercise a limited amount of compassion for the hot-headed fanatics, but the cool-headed, well-to-do mercenaries of that party merit the scorn and contempt, of every man, woman and child in the land.

We have heard a good deal in your paper about the lobby, but nothing of its constituent parts; now we hear that the lobbyists are not all arrested Radicals, but that there are a good many so called Conservatives, members of the lobby, that means, I suppose, that they did not register, Radical, last election, waiting to see which would be the spoils party. We are told that these so-called may be seen daily promenading the streets of Raleigh, arm and arm with the Radical members of the Legislature, and billing and cooing with them about the hotels. These same men might have been heard a few months ago discoursing most eloquently, to large crowds, but more especially to parties full of ladies, on the enormity of treating Radicals on terms of social equality. What, said they, after that piece on work in the Standard; and we are also told that the aforesaid furnished a good part of the brains, for the Rads, and that nearly all these ruinous railroad measures originated with them, but they tell their friends at home, well the old state is going to the devil financially anyway, and they had just as well make something out of it, as any one else. On the same principle an expectant heir might feel himself justified in hastening, by a reasonable dose of poison, the demise of an aged parent, because he was suffering with an incurable disease. If they are Conservatives they use Radical logic, and we think any party would do well to get rid of them.

In conclusion, allow me to call your attention to the similarity between the Conservative party now, and wheat going through the process of cleansing. You know all the rotten grains fall off before the sickle as a great many men did during the war. Well, the cleansing commences. Reconstruction turning the fan-mill; the chaff, smut and dirt are soon blown off, and then a finer sieve is put in and Reconstruction blows harder and the damaged grains fly over to the chaff; then a little faster and harder and black bugs, which grown and fattened on the wheat, seeing no prospect of a cessation, follow the damaged grains. Now when the process is gone through with and Reconstruction has stopped a moment to draw his breath, some heretofore apparently dead bugs among the wheat who have been "possuming," suddenly show signs of life, and to see the way they crawl over and try to get at the dirt under the chaff, you would suppose these bugs had never seen a wheat field but had gravelled in a barn yard for their grub.

Now, Mr. Editor, if you know any one who is fond of buging, tell him to borrow Windy Billy Smith's dog Jeff. and take a round on the back streets of Raleigh, and if we are not humbuged, he will have a fine day's sport.

DUBIENS.

P. S. Jeff. was trained for runaway negroes, he ought to be good for renegades.

FROM GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Feb. 18, P. M.

An adjourned meeting of the Republicans of Georgia, was held here on the fifteenth, to take into consideration the political condition of the State, and the advancement of loyalty in Georgia adopting a set of resolutions, that Reconstruction was not complete in Georgia, that Congress be requested to consider the facts presented in a memorial to Governor Bullock to Congress, that Congress restore legally elected colored members to their seats in the Legislature, to enforce the Reconstruction laws by such legislation as they deemed wise and proper, that the reconstruction laws had been violated, and men holding office who are ineligible under the Constitution, the 14th, Article and disloyal to the United States, and ask Congress to enforce the laws, and force disqualified members to vacate their seats, and earnestly desire that no person be appointed to any civil office in the State, except he can take the test oath to appeal to Congress to enact such laws necessary to give all classes of citizens ample protection to life, liberty and property, and full enjoyment of political privileges.

Certified copies of these resolutions have been forwarded to General Grant and Colfax, Wade, Trumbull and Boutwell.

The Conservative-Republicans of Georgia held a mass meeting to-night to enter into a solemn unqualified protest against the above resolutions. They deny that it was a meeting of the Republican party, but only a small portion of the disaffected extremists, supported by a small number of Republicans, and claim that the name of the Committee on the resolutions were wholly opposed to the doctrines set forth; that the whole thing was a misrepresentation of the position and sentiments of the party; that the resolutions would take issue with Gen. Meade and his decisions as sustained by General Grant and a very large portion of the Republican party of Georgia, deny that the resolutions represent the wishes of all loyal men wherein they state that all loyal men are favorable to Gov. Bullock's memorial to Congress, and deny that the loyal men are oppressed in Georgia, that Congress has not kept its pledge, to the Union men of the South and that Reconstruction must be undone and done over again before peace and order is restored in this State.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
PAID IN FULL.

BRANCH OFFICE:
FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
PHILADELPHIA,
where the general business of the Company is transacted, and to which all general correspondence should be addressed.

OFFICERS.

CLARENCE H. CLARK, President.
JAY COOK, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Vice President.
EMERSON W. PEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes. Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from other and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its charter, after which that accelerated its speed, for since then, the largest policies issued has been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished.

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1869.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE SIXTEENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT COMPOSED OF THE COUNTIES OF HARNETT, CUMBERLAND AND SAMPSON

Having received the unanimous nomination of the Conservative Convention which assembled in Fayetteville, on the 12th of February, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for a seat in the Senate of North Carolina, and respectfully solicit your suffrages for that position on the 25th of the present month. I stand firmly and squarely on the platform of our country, of Constitutional rights and Constitutional freedom, and, relying on the strenuous efforts of the friends who have thus honored me, I feel that the right must prevail, and we must be again represented by a Conservative in the Assembly of North Carolina.—The time is so short that it is impossible for me to see many of the electors in the District, and I must, of course, rely mostly on the friends of our cause, acting at the same time, all my individual efforts and ability to secure the position. If you favor me with your support you may be assured that all my energies, and all my ability, will be devoted to the interests of North Carolina, and to the rebuilding of our shattered fortunes.

Work! work! will be my watchword, and I call upon all the friends of the cause to aid me with their might and their suffrage.

Let us rise in the majesty of our strength, and again carry our District; unity and vigorous, persistent action will accomplish it. I am not bonored by the Howard amendment, and can take my seat, if elected. Very respectfully,

Your ob't serv't,
C. TATE MURPHY.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and reducing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY complete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ERR, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by
